AMONG THE BUSY BUILDERS

Work of the Week Done By Union Men.

An interesting report on new buildings, repairs and general improvements, reported for the week by the efficient business agent of the Carpenters' Union.

The dwelling at 204 North Reed street is under-going general repairs. Messrs. Wills & Broughton have completed a large cesspool at the residence of Mrs. Casey, corner De Villiers and Jackson streets.

M. J. Clark has repaired the dwelling corner De Villiers and Jackson streets.

W. West & Petty have finished a new cottage for Robert Stewart on North Alcañiz street.

J. M. Crona has completed the following work: Repairs for the cable for city patrol wagon; repairs to the residence of Adolf Cohen, 220 West Garden; repairs at the opera house; some repairs at the Pensacola Navy Stable, and repairs at the residence of A. M. McMillan, 413 Bay street.

The cottage Mr. Crona has in charge of erection for Mr. Joe Hill on North Alcañiz street is under-going repairs. The contractor has a number of scaffolds erected on the roof and is continuing to take up the roof for buildings. We have as yet been able to find a record on any books where any of them have been taken out of house. French rule are allowed privileges of others not belonging to that of the French, but we did not know before that they could carry on a contracting business without license.

Mr. Thos. F. Wrighton has completed the following work since our last report: Painting interior of John Pfeiffer's dwelling, 313 East Independence street; also painting and painting interior of dwelling, 210 East Government street, same owner as above; glazing and painting skylights at DeLustro's restaurant, 611 South Palafox; papering one room at Merchants hotel; papering one room at John A. Merritt's corner Baylen and Garden streets; one sign for Olive South West Zarragosa and house advertising sign for the Trainer restaurant.

Mr. J. P. Goodman and men are painting the hospital corner Garden and Baylen streets.

A beautiful work of art was delivered from the marble works of R. E. Teal for the grave of the late Madeline Helmer. The enclosure represents four oak logs, cut in outline of a stone; across the log for the headpiece is thrown a scroll, on which is cut the inscription; on the top of the log is a small hat. The work is done in a first class manner and reflects great credit on Mr. Teal as a designer.

A Bloemfont in dispatch says that a majority of the members of the Free State Volksraad refused to attend the conference which President Steyn called at Kroonstad to endorse the proposition to continue the war.

Lord Roberts cables that advices from Mafeking dated March 10, say the spirits and health of the garrison are good; that they have made a searchlight and are making ammunition. They have introduced paper currency. Their food is lasting well.

SOCIETY EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Col. and Mrs. T. V. Kessler entertained several friends at dinner Sunday evening. Covers were laid for seven and a delicious menu was served in a most tempting manner.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. H. Baars had a few friends "to dine" in honor of Captain Bennett, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Howe.

Tuesday evening, Mrs. Greenhut entertained several friends at luncheon. A delicious menu of five courses was served. Lovely violets, the reigning flower of the season, were chosen as the decoration. In the spacious dining room bouquets of violets met the eye everywhere; from the centre piece of renaissance lace over violet satin arose a graceful mound of violets, lending their fragrance as well as adding beauty to a table already laid with exquisite appointments for such an entertainment. A lovely bouquet was placed at each plate as a souvenir for the guests.

Wednesday evening Mrs. P. Stone, at her home on North Palafox street, in her usual gracious manner, entertained many friends at a delightful whist party, given in honor of her sister, Mrs. C. W. Oppenheimer, and niece, Miss Teresa Freilichstein. The prizes were awarded as follows: The first prize, a lovely delphi plaque, by Mrs. Danheiser; the second prize, a beautiful cut glass silver mounted ink stand, by Mrs. Lichtenberg; the consolation prize, a handkerchief tray, by Mrs. Oppenheimer. Delicious refreshments of four courses were beautifully served and much enjoyed by the guests.

Wednesday Mrs. H. Baars issued invitations to many friends to join her on a trip on the bay, given in honor of her guest, Mrs. Foltz of Chicago. A bright sunny day, added to the charms of hostess and special guest, made this a most enjoyable occasion. A trip to the navy yard, from thence to life saving station, where a visit to the beach was a great pleasure, and upon returning to the steamer a delicious luncheon was served, which made up the full measure of a most delightful but informal excursion.

The Progress club doors were open on Wednesday evening as usual to the ladies. Several games of whist were played and Mrs. Greenhut was the fortunate winner of the only prize which is offered on these occasions.

The Thursday Afternoon Euchre club was entertained by Mrs. Ferguson at the residence of Mrs. Marton. The first prize, a lovely Chinese teapot, was won by Mrs. Gibbs; the second, a box of candy, by Mrs. Andrew Andersen. The club will meet at the home of Mrs. Davis on next Thursday.

Mrs. Greenhut entertained the Euchre club at her home Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Roth was presented with the first prize, a lovely silver paper knife; Mrs. Reblid, second prize, a mirror, and Mrs. Sarah Danziger, consolation prize, a box of writing paper.

Thursday there was quite a stir of excitement in anticipation of the arrival of the warships, New York Texas and the gun boat Machias. Several of the tug boats were in readiness for the trip to sea to give these monsters of the deep a welcome, at the same time many citizens, taking advantage of the same to view these noble specimens of Uncle Sam's navy. All however were doomed to disappointment, as the fleet was delayed and did not arrive until twelve p. m. The New York Texas and Machias are now lying at anchor near the navy yard, where no doubt Pensacolians will have the pleasure of a renewal of pleasant acquaintances made in the past, many will be pleased to know that Lieut. Archibald Davis is among the officers of the New York.

Miss Stella Avery is now visiting Miss Reisinger of the navy yard.

Miss Fleming of Fredicksburg, Va., who has been the guest of Miss Edna Avery for some weeks, left Thursday for Auburn, Ala., where she is to visit friends before her return home.

Mrs. Foltz of Chicago, who has been the guest of Mrs. H. Baars, left on the noon train Friday, much to the regret of her many friends made during her short stay. She was much pleased with Pensacola, and certainly those who had the pleasure of meeting her were won by her gracious and charming manner.

Mr. Simpson of the firm of Simpson, Spence & Young of New York city, was in our city for several days during the past week, the guest of Hotel Escambia.

Mrs. Reed and Miss Reed of Ohio, who have been visiting Mrs. Suter, will leave Monday for New Orleans.

Miss Katie Smith left Thursday on the noon train for Chicago, where she expects to remain with friends and relatives until fall.

Mrs. Mamie Ackerman Alvarez of this city and George Abram Smith, the basso who has been conducting a conservatory of music here, were wedded at Mobile Thursday. They will leave to-morrow for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will in future reside.

C., March 30.—The chief dispensary constable stationed at Charleston has reported to the governor that the customhouse has been for years made a depository for liquor belonging to the most notorious illicit dealers in Charleston; that a wagon loaded with this liquor was detected driving out of the storehouse at daylight and was chased, but the horses were put to the run and escaped; that the government officials were cognizant of this state of affairs and gave the "blind tigers" protection.

In search of the storehouse liquor had been found, but the collector refused to allow it to be seized, but on advice of the assistant district attorney he pledged himself to hold it subject to instructions from Secretary Gage.

Baking Powder Economy

The manufacturers of Royal Baking Powder have always declined to produce a cheap baking powder at the sacrifice of quality.

The Royal is made from the most highly refined and wholesome ingredients, and is the embodiment of all the excellence possible to be attained in the highest class baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder costs only a fair price, and is cheaper at its price than any similar article.

Samples of mixtures made in imitation of baking powders, but containing alum, are frequently distributed from door to door, or given away in grocery stores. Such mixtures are dangerous to use in food, and in many cities their sale is prohibited by law. Alum is a corrosive poison, and all physicians condemn baking powders containing it.
